CORRECTION: NU SKIN ENTERPRISES ANNOUNCES RECORD FIRST-QUARTER REVENUE AND UPDATES ANNUAL GUIDANCE

PROVO, Utah – April 8, 2011 – A press release issued by Nu Skin Enterprises, Inc. (NYSE: NUS) on April 6, 2011, contained an inadvertent typographical error. While the annual numbers were correctly stated, the last sentence of the first paragraph that quantified the impact of the Japan customs decision on first-quarter earnings contained an error. The “$0.29 to $0.31” should be replaced by “0.19 to $0.21.”

The entire corrected release follows:

Nu Skin Enterprises, Inc. (NYSE: NUS) today announced that it expects to exceed previous company guidance by posting first-quarter revenue of approximately $395 million, a 9 percent improvement over the prior-year period. Revenue is expected to benefit approximately 5 percent due to foreign currency fluctuations. The company also projects first-quarter earnings of $0.52 to $0.54 when excluding non-cash charges of approximately $33 million related to the recent judgment rendered in a dispute with Japan Customs. When including these charges, first-quarter earnings are expected to be $0.19 to $0.21 per share.

“We are starting the year off strong with record first-quarter revenue, driven largely by impressive gains in our emerging markets,” said Truman Hunt, president and chief executive officer. “Our performance this quarter is particularly impressive when taking into consideration last year’s first-quarter launch of ageLOC Transformation, which contributed to 23 percent growth. In addition, we estimate the natural disasters in Japan had a negative first-quarter impact of approximately $5 million in revenue and $.01 to earnings per share.

“Our overall geographic diversity contributed to the impressive quarter. Revenue was particularly strong in Mainland China and South Asia/Pacific, which generated local currency growth rates of approximately 45 percent and 30 percent, respectively. South Korea and Europe were also solid performers in the first quarter. We anticipate that our U.S. business will report a decline of approximately 10 percent, partially due to a difficult comparison with the prior-year launch of ageLOC Transformation, while Japan revenue is expected to decline 7 percent, which includes the negative impact from the natural disasters,” Hunt continued.

“As the Nu Skin global family rallies around our friends and colleagues in Japan, we have gained an even greater appreciation for the resiliency of the people of this great nation. We have been inspired by our Japanese sales leaders as they courageously respond to this tragedy. As a company, we believe that the natural disasters will slow, but will not derail, our turnaround efforts in Japan.

“We reiterate our 2011 guidance of $1.60 to $1.63 billion in revenue with earnings per share in the $2.25 to $2.35 range, or $1.92 to $2.02 when including charges related to the Japan Customs decision. We estimate the natural disasters will have an annual negative impact on Japan sales of 5 percent, or approximately $25 million. Although the situation is fluid, we project an impact of about $5 million in the first quarter, $10 million in the second quarter, $7 million in the third quarter and about $3 million in the fourth quarter. However, we expect our overall results will benefit from stronger-than-anticipated revenue growth in South Asia/Pacific and China, as well as healthy growth in South Korea and Europe. We also anticipate a stronger product launch in the fourth quarter than we had initially forecast. All things considered, we are committed to delivering on our original guidance. We look forward to providing a full report and update on our overall business in our first-quarter earnings release, now scheduled for May 3,” concluded Hunt.
