PROXY STATEMENT

NU SKIN ENTERPRISES, INC.

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS TO BE HELD ON MAY 9, 2002

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The accompanying proxy is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of Nu Skin Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company") for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") to be held at the corporate offices of the Company, 75 West Center Street, Provo, Utah 84601, on May 9, 2002 at 4:00 p.m., Mountain Daylight Time, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Each proposal is described in more detail in this Proxy Statement. These proxy solicitation materials were first sent or given to the Company's stockholders on or about April 12, 2002.

All shares represented by each properly executed, unrevoked proxy received in time for the Annual Meeting will be voted as directed by the stockholder. If no specific voting instructions are given, the proxy will be voted FOR:

- (1) The election of the ten nominees to the Board of Directors listed in the proxy; and
- (2) The ratification of the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent accountants for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2002.

If any other matters properly come before the Annual Meeting, including, among other things, consideration of a motion to adjourn the Annual Meeting to another time or place, the persons named in the accompanying proxy will vote on such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

Any proxy duly given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the person or entity giving it at any time before it is voted by delivering a written notice of revocation to the Secretary of the Company, by executing a later-dated proxy and delivering it to the Secretary of the Company, or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not in and of itself constitute a revocation of the proxy).

The Company will bear the cost of solicitation of proxies. Expenses include reimbursements paid to brokerage firms and others for their expenses incurred in forwarding solicitation material regarding the Annual Meeting to beneficial owners of the Company's voting stock. Solicitation of proxies will be made by mail. The Company's regular employees may further solicit proxies by telephone or in person and will not receive additional compensation for such solicitation.

OUTSTANDING SHARES AND VOTING RIGHTS

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on April 1, 2002 (the "Record Date") are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the Record Date, 34,072,073 shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock and 48,307,039 shares of the Company's Class B Common Stock were issued and outstanding. Each outstanding share of Class A Common Stock will be entitled to one vote and each outstanding share of Class B Common Stock shall be entitled to ten votes on each matter submitted to a vote of the stockholders at the Annual Meeting. The Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock will vote as a single class with respect to all matters submitted to a vote of the stockholders at the Annual Meeting. Certain subsidiaries of the Company hold an aggregate of approximately 203,000 shares of the Class A Common Stock. In accordance with the General Corporate Law of the State of Delaware, these shares may not be voted with respect to any of the matters presented at the Annual Meeting and shall not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum. The Class A Common Stock and the Class B Common Stock are collectively referred to as the "Common Stock" in this Proxy Statement.

In order to constitute a quorum for the conduct of business at the Annual Meeting, a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Common Stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting must be represented, either in person or by proxy, at the Annual Meeting. Under Delaware law, shares represented by proxies that reflect abstentions or "broker non-votes" (which are shares held by a broker or nominee that are represented at the Annual Meeting, but with respect to which such broker or nominee is not empowered to vote on a particular proposal) will be counted as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of the Company's Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock as of March 18, 2002 by (i) each person (or group of affiliated persons) who is known by the Company to own beneficially more than 5% of the outstanding shares of either the Class A Common Stock or the Class B Common Stock, (ii) each of the Company's directors, (iii) each of the Company's current executive officers whose names appear in the summary compensation table under the caption "Executive Compensation," and (iv) all executive officers and directors of the Company as a group. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes to the table, the business address of the 5% stockholders is 75 West Center Street, Provo, Utah 84601, and the stockholders listed have direct beneficial ownership and sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares beneficially owned. Each share of Class B Common Stock is convertible at any time at the option of the holder into one share of Class A Common Stock, and each share of Class B Common Stock automatically converts into one share of Class A Common Stock upon the transfer of such share of Class B Common Stock to any person who is not a permitted transferee as defined in the Company's Certificate of Incorporation.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Directors are elected at each Annual Meeting of Stockholders and hold office until their successors are duly elected and qualified at the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Company's Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors will consist of a minimum of five and a maximum of 11 directors, with the number being designated by the Board of Directors. In November 2001, the Board increased the size of the Board from nine members to ten members and appointed Takashi Bamba, President of Nu Skin Japan, to serve as a director. Each of the nominees for election to the Board of Directors is currently serving as a director of the Company and, except for Takashi Bamba, was previously elected to his or her present term of office by the stockholders of the Company.

Directors will be elected by a favorable vote of a plurality of the shares of Common Stock present and entitled to vote, in person or by proxy, at the Annual Meeting. The ten nominees receiving the highest number of votes will be elected to serve as directors. Accordingly, abstentions and broker non-votes as to the election of directors will not affect the election of the candidates receiving the plurality of votes. Unless instructed to the contrary, the shares represented by proxies will be voted FOR the election of the ten nominees named below. Although it is anticipated that each nominee will be able to serve as a director, should any nominee become unavailable to serve, proxies will be voted for such other person or persons as may be designated by the Company's Board of Directors.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR EACH OF THE TEN NOMINEES TO THE COMPANY'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires the Company's officers and directors and persons who own beneficially more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the New York Stock Exchange initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of the Company's equity securities. Officers, directors, and greater than 10% beneficial owners are required to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file. Based solely upon a review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Company or written representations that no other reports were required, the Company believes that during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001 the Company's officers, directors, and greater than 10% beneficial owners complied with all applicable Section 16(a) filing requirements, except that Richard King filed two late reports on Form 4 relating to two dividend reinvestments and Robert Conlee filed one late report on Form 4 relating to one dividend reinvestment. - (1) All options granted become exercisable in four equal annual installments beginning on the date of grant. Options are granted for a term of ten years, subject to earlier termination in certain events, and are not transferable. The exercise price is equal to the fair market value of the Class A Common Stock on the date of grant. The Compensation Committee retains discretion, subject to certain restrictions, to modify the terms of outstanding options.
- (2) Potential gains are net of the exercise price, but before taxes associated with the exercise. Amounts represent hypothetical gains that could be achieved for the respective options if exercised at the end of the option term. The assumed 5% and 10% rates of stock price appreciation are provided in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and do not represent the Company's estimate or projection of the future Class A Common Stock price. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises depend upon the future financial performance of the Company, overall market conditions, and the option holder's continued employment through the vesting period. This table does not take into account any actual appreciation in the price of the Class A Common Stock from the date of grant.

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to unexercised options held by the Named Officers as of December 31, 2001. No options were exercised by any of the Named Officers in 2001.

Employment Agreements

Mr. Bamba is employed as the President of Nu Skin Japan at an annual salary of approximately 45,150,000 yen (approximately US$371,000 based on average exchange rates in 2001). This salary is subject to annual review. Under the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Bamba is entitled to reimbursement of business-related expenses, the use of an automobile provided by Nu Skin Japan, and participation in a retirement plan offered by Nu Skin Japan, which provides for a retirement payment in an amount determined by multiplying the final monthly salary of Mr. Bamba by the number of years employed multiplied by two. An additional amount of up to 25% of this amount can also be paid at the discretion of the Board of Nu Skin Japan. Mr. Bamba also has the right under his employment agreement to have Nu Skin Japan purchase a country club membership and pay related dues, although he has not exercised this right.

Compensation Plans

The Company has adopted cash bonus incentive plans for its employees, including the executive officers of the Company. Under the current cash bonus incentive plan, an executive officer receives a bonus based on the operating results of the Company compared to targeted performance measures. The bonus is measured and paid quarterly. The Company has also, from time to time, paid discretionary cash bonuses to executives based on local market and individual performance. The Company has also historically paid a discretionary year-end payment to all of its employees as more fully described in the Compensation Committee Report.

The Company also maintains two deferred compensation plans for certain of its executive officers. Under the first plan, $12,000 is accrued as deferred compensation each year. The total amount of deferred compensation vests after the earlier of (i) ten years from the date of employment with the Company, and (ii) the executive officer attaining age 60. Under the second plan, an amount equal to a set percentage of an executive officer's salary is accrued as deferred compensation. The total amount of deferred compensation under this plan vests after the earlier of (x) 20 years from the date of employment with the Company, and (y) the executive officer attaining age 60.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

This Compensation Committee Report discusses the Company's executive compensation policies and the basis for the compensation paid to the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, and the executive officers that report directly to the Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer (collectively, for purposes of this Report, the "Executive Officers") during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001.

Compensation Policy. The Company's policy with respect to executive compensation has been designed to:

- Ensure the Company's compensation programs enable it to recruit, retain, and motivate a group of talented and diverse domestic and international executives;
- Provide competitive, flexible compensation arrangements that adequately reward for significant achievement;
- Ensure that executive compensation is economically defensible and consistent with corporate performance; and

- Align the interests of the Executive Officers with those of the Company's stockholders with respect to short-term operating goals and long-term increases in the price of the Company's Class A Common Stock.

The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing and approving all compensation paid by the Company to the Executive Officers. In this capacity, the Compensation Committee determines the timing, pricing, and amount of all such bonuses and awards granted under the plans. Members of the Compensation Committee also administer the Second Amended and Restated 1996 Stock Incentive Plan. As such, the Compensation Committee establishes the timing and terms of all equity awards granted to both Executive Officers of the Company as well as all other employee awards.

Components of Compensation. The components of the Company's current compensation program consists of (i) base salary, (ii) short-term incentives in the form of cash bonus payments, (iii) long-term incentives in the form of equity awards, and (iv) certain other benefits provided to the Company's Executive Officers. These components and the relationship of each component of compensation to the Company's performance are discussed below.

Base Salary. The Compensation Committee is responsible for establishing the base salary for the Executive Officers and approving any changes or adjustments to base salary. In reviewing and approving base salaries and any adjustments paid to Executive Officers, the Compensation Committee considers various factors including (i) salaries provided by similarly sized companies or companies within the Company's industry; (ii) the nature of each Executive Officer's responsibilities, capabilities and contributions; (iii) an evaluation of the Company's financial and securities market performance; and (iv) with respect to Executive Officers other than the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer, the recommendation of the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer. The Compensation Committee does not assign any specific weights to these factors, but it places a greater emphasis on the salaries provided by other companies to ensure that the salaries provided by the Company are competitive, enabling the Company to attract and retain qualified and effective Executive Officers. In connection with this process, the Compensation Committee reviews and considers compensation surveys prepared for the Compensation Committee by independent consulting firms. The Compensation Committee believes that the base salaries for the Company's Executive Officers are reasonable in relation to the Company's size and performance in comparison with the compensation paid by similarly sized companies or companies within the Company's industry.

Annual Incentive Compensation. The Compensation Committee policy is to maintain a significant portion of Executive Officers' compensation at risk, tied to the financial performance of the Company. In furtherance of this objective, the Company has established formal annual incentive plans that provide for cash bonuses based on the achievement of targeted levels of revenue and operating income determined on a constant currency basis. The amount of the bonus that can be earned under these plans is fixed by a formula and is based on the degree to which the targeted performance measures have been met or exceeded. A bonus was paid to Executive Officers under these plans based on the performance of the Company during the second, third, and fourth quarters of 2001. The Compensation Committee also has retained the right to make discretionary bonuses to Executive Officers for extraordinary performance and other factors. The Compensation Committee believes the incentive compensation plans for its Executive Officers reward those individuals for achieving or exceeding the Company's goals and targeted objectives, thus benefiting the Company and its stockholders. The Compensation Committee believes the achievement of these goals and targeted objectives will dictate, in large part, the Company's future operating results. The Compensation Committee believes that providing incentive-based compensation fairly and adequately compensates individuals in relation to their responsibilities, capabilities, and contributions to the Company and in a manner that is commensurate with compensation paid by companies of comparable size or within the Company's industry.

The Company has also historically made a year-end payment to corporate employees in the form of a gift certificate or similar merchant credit arrangement or cash in an amount equal to a percentage of each employee's base salary (approximately two-weeks' salary). The amount of this year-end payment made to the Named Executive Officers is included in the bonus column of the Summary Compensation Table.

Equity Awards. The Compensation Committee has adopted a compensation policy that is designed to encourage Executive Officers to manage from the perspective of owners with an equity stake in the Company. The Compensation Committee ties a portion of the total compensation of Executive Officers to the long-term financial performance of the Company through the grant of equity awards, primarily stock options. The Company has adopted the Second Amended and Restated 1996 Stock Incentive Plan that provides the members of the Compensation Committee with the discretion to grant equity incentive awards to key employees of the Company. The members of the Compensation Committee have the complete authority to determine the persons to whom awards will be made and the nature and size of such awards. The Second Amended and Restated 1996 Stock Incentive Plan provides for options, stock appreciation rights, contingent stock awards, and restricted stock awards. The members of the Compensation Committee determine the number of awards to be granted and the persons who are to receive such awards on a subjective basis, taking into consideration several factors including the level of options generally granted by similarly sized companies or companies within the Company's industry for similar positions, the anticipated value of the Company's stock if financial and operating targets are met, individual salaries and individual performance, and recommendations of the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer with respect to the other Executive Officers. The members of the Compensation Committee also utilize the services of an independent consulting firm to provide advice on the size and frequency of equity awards. Typically, the option awards are granted twice a year.

In September 2001, the Compensation Committee approved a tender offer to exchange outstanding options with an exercise price of $10.00 per share or more for a promise to grant new replacement options on April 19, 2002 with an exercise price equal to the closing sales price of the Class A Common Stock on such date. The Compensation Committee elected to make directors and members of the executive management committee ineligible to participate in such tender offer. In addition, Vice Presidents were required to agree to a new vesting schedule if they participated in the tender offer. The Compensation Committee determined that because a large number of the outstanding options, whether or not they were currently exercisable, had exercise prices equal to or greater than $10.00 per share, which was significantly higher than the then current market price of the shares, these options no longer provided adequate incentive for performance and key employee retention. By making the offer to exchange the outstanding options for new options, the Compensation Committee intended to provide eligible employees with the benefit of owning options that over time may have a greater potential to increase in value, create better performance incentives for eligible employees, and thereby maximize stockholder value.

Other Benefits. The Company maintains certain other plans and arrangements for the benefit of its Executive Officers. The Company believes these benefits are reasonable in relation to the executive compensation practices of other similarly sized companies or companies within the Company's industry.

Tax Limitations on Deductibility. The Compensation Committee takes into consideration the limitation on deductibility for United States income tax purposes of compensation in excess of $1 million paid to the Company's highest paid Executive Officers when it is determining compensation for its Executive Officers. The Compensation Committee has attempted, where possible, to structure its formal bonus and equity plans to qualify for the "performance-based" exception to the deduction limitation.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer. The salary paid by the Company to Mr. Lund in 2001 was determined in accordance with the policies set forth above. The Compensation Committee had previously reduced Mr. Lund's base salary in order to make his total compensation more performance-based. The Compensation Committee believes Mr. Lund's salary is commensurate with the compensation paid by companies of comparable size and within the Company's industry. The Company paid $346,885 in bonuses to Mr. Lund based on the Company's revenue and operating profit performance in 2001 compared to targeted goals which are based on local currency performance. In addition, a year-end payment that was equivalent, on a percentage basis of base salary, to the year-end payments provided to all corporate employees as described above was provided to Mr. Lund. The Compensation Committee elected not to make any equity awards to Mr. Lund in 2001 because of existing incentives tied to the performance of the Company.

Conclusion. The Compensation Committee believes that the concepts discussed above further the stockholders' interests and that Executive Officer compensation encourages responsible management of the Company. The Compensation Committee regularly considers the effect of management compensation on stockholder interests. In the past, the Compensation Committee based its review, in part, on the experience of its own members and on information requested from management personnel. The Compensation Committee also regularly seeks input from an independent executive compensation and benefits consulting firm regarding the Company's compensation policies and strategies. In the future, these factors, reports of the Compensation Committee, and discussions with and information compiled by various independent consultants retained by the Company and the Compensation Committee will be used in determining Executive Officer compensation.

STOCK PERFORMANCE GRAPH

Set forth below is a line graph comparing the cumulative total stockholder return (stock price appreciation plus dividends) on the Company's Class A Common Stock with the cumulative total return of the S&P 500 Index and a market weighted index of publicly traded peers for the period from December 31, 1996 through December 31, 2001. The graph assumes that $100 is invested in each of the Class A Common Stock, the S&P 500 Index, and the index of publicly traded peers on December 31, 1996 and that all dividends were reinvested. The Company has elected to modify its peer group to include three new consumer product or direct selling companies (Dial Corporation, Estee Lauder, and Herbalife International) and remove Revlon, Inc. The three additional peers are more closely aligned with the Company's product line or distribution channel. The Company believes the new peer group is a good representation of consumer product and direct selling companies for comparison purposes. The publicly traded companies in the new peer group are Avon Products, Inc., Dial Corporation, Estee Lauder, Herbalife International, Nature's Sunshine Products, Inc., and Tupperware Corporation.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for monitoring the Company's financial auditing, accounting, and financial reporting processes and its system of internal controls on behalf of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee. The Company's management has primary responsibility for the Company's internal controls and reporting process. The Company's independent public accountants, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and issuing an opinion on the conformity of the Company's audited consolidated financial statements to generally accepted accounting principles. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor these processes. In this context, the Audit Committee met and held discussions with management, the Company's internal auditors, and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. Management represented to the Audit Committee that the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year 2001 were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Audit Committee hereby reports as follows:

- The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements and accompanying management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations with the Company's management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP. This discussion included PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP's judgments about the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

- The Audit Committee also discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees).
- PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee has discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP the accounting firm's independence. The Audit Committee also considered whether non-audit services provided by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP during the last fiscal year were compatible with maintaining the accounting firm's independence.
- Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2001, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee also recommended to the Board of Directors, subject to stockholder ratification, the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to serve as the Company's independent public accountants for the year ending December 31, 2002.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND TRANSACTIONS

Distributor Stock Option Obligation

Maple Hills Investment, Inc. ("Maple Hills"), formerly known as Nu Skin USA, Inc., previously agreed to reimburse the Company for the value of the Class A Common Stock that the Company is required to issue upon exercise of certain options granted to distributors of the Company resident in the United States. A total of $490,447 of this obligation was repaid in 2001.

As set forth below, certain of the stockholders of Maple Hills were directors, executive officers or significant stockholders of the Company in 2001. The following table sets forth the ownership percentage in Maple Hills for each of the stockholders who is (i) a person known by the Company to own beneficially more than 5% of the outstanding shares of either the Class A Common Stock or the Class B Common Stock as of March 10, 2002 (a "5% Stockholder"), (ii) a director of the Company, (iii) a Named Officer, or (iv) a family member of the foregoing persons.

Big Planet Acquisition Note

As part of the Company's acquisition of Big Planet, Inc. in 1999, the Company issued a promissory note in the principal amount of $14.5 million to Maple Hills. The note accrues interest at the rate of 6.5% and is payable in quarterly installments over three years. As of March 1, 2002, approximately $6.8 million remained outstanding.

In 2001, Maple Hills reimbursed the Company approximately $1.17 million dollars for its share of the legal costs and settlement amounts associated with the Natalie Capone litigation that was settled in 2001. Maple Hills had previously agreed to assume liability for 50% of all costs and settlement amounts associated with such litigation. In addition, Maple Hills also paid the Company approximately $611,000 related primarily to a claim for indemnification made by the Company under the acquisition agreement for Nu Skin Canada, Inc. for a tax liability incurred by the Company related to a matter arising prior to the acquisition. The foregoing amounts were paid by offsetting amounts owing under $14.5 million note to Maple Hills described above.

Leases

The Company leases its corporate offices, distribution center, and certain other property pursuant to lease agreements with two entities, Scrub Oak, Ltd. and Aspen Country L.L.C., owned by the following executive officers, directors, 5% or greater stockholders, and respective family members: Blake M. Roney, Nedra D. Roney, Sandra N. Tillotson, Brooke B. Roney, Steven J. Lund, Kirk V. Roney, Craig S. Tillotson, R. Craig Bryson, and Rick A. Roney. In 2001, the Company incurred lease charges totaling approximately $2.2 million and $1.1 million, respectively, to Scrub Oak and Aspen Country.

Stockholders Partnership

R. Craig Bryson and Craig S. Tillotson are major stockholders of the Company and have been distributors of the Company since 1984. Messrs. Bryson and Tillotson and Clara McDermott, the mother of Mr. Tillotson, are partners in an entity (the "Partnership") that receives substantial commissions on product sales from the Company. For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, total commissions paid to the Partnership were approximately $3.5 million. By agreement, the Company pays commissions to the Partnership at the highest level of commissions available to distributors. Management believes that this arrangement allows Messrs. Bryson and Tillotson and Ms. McDermott the flexibility of using their expertise and reputations in network marketing to motivate and train distributors to benefit the Company's distributor force generally, without having to focus solely on their own organizations.

Craig S. Tillotson has three brothers who are distributors of the Company. For the year ended December 31, 2001, total commissions paid to these persons or the partnerships in which they are partners from the sale of Company products were approximately $1.9 million.

Stockholders Agreement

Effective as of November 28, 1997, the original stockholders of the Company and certain of their transferees (the "Original Stockholders") entered into an amended and restated stockholders agreement with the Company (the "Stockholders Agreement"). The Original Stockholders and certain of their affiliates beneficially own shares having over 90% of the combined voting power of the outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company. Each of the Original Stockholders has agreed to comply with the volume limitations of Rule 144 even if they are eligible to sell shares under Rule 144(k).

The Original Stockholders have been granted registration rights by the Company permitting each such Original Stockholder to register his or her shares of Class A Common Stock, subject to certain restrictions, on any registration statement filed by the Company until such Original Stockholder has sold a specified value of shares of Class A Common Stock. In certain circumstances, the Original Stockholders are responsible to reimburse the Company for expenses associated with any registered offering. The Original Stockholders had an obligation that was outstanding during the first part of 2001 to reimburse the Company in the amount of approximately $1.5 million for expenses incurred by the Company that were associated with prior proposed public offerings and other related liquidity events and transactions. The outstanding balance accrued interest at an annual rate of 6.5% and was repaid in full in 2001.

Lease of Airplane

The Company periodically charters air service from a charter company, Keystone Aviation LLC, in which Blake M. Roney, Chairman of the Board of the Company, currently owns a 50% interest. In 2001, the Company paid $242,901 to this charter company. Keystone Aviation, LLC, leases from time to time an aircraft from Arrow Plane, L.C. to provide its charter services to the Company. Mr. Roney and his spouse directly or indirectly own substantially all of Arrow Plane, L.C. In 2001, Arrow Plane, L.C. received payments of approximately $72,930 from Keystone Aviation related to charter services provided to the Company.

Certain Loans

As part of his employment agreement, the Company previously loaned John Chou, the President of Nu Skin Taiwan, $1.0 million. The loan bears no interest and is payable upon demand if Mr. Chou ceases to be employed by Nu Skin Taiwan or an affiliate. The loan is to be repaid by applying $100,000 of the sum earned by Mr. Chou under the Company's bonus plan each year against the loan balance. If less than $100,000 is earned under the bonus plan in a given year, $100,000 is nevertheless applied against the loan balance. If Mr. Chou is terminated "without cause," any loan balance will be forgiven. The outstanding balance of the loan at March 1, 2002, was approximately $500,000.

On December 10, 1997, the Company loaned $5.0 million to Nedra D. Roney. This loan is secured by a pledge by Ms. Roney of 349,406 shares of Class B Common Stock and accrues interest at 6.0% per annum. The loan was made in connection with Ms. Roney's entering into the Stockholders Agreement, as amended. In 2001, $366,000 in interest had accrued on this loan.
